Subject: Re: Assassination Records Review Board Press Release
Dear Ms. Clark:Thank you for writing and for your kind words. I believe the best way to find e-mail addresses would be to call the White House (202) 456-1414 and, call your congressman's local office. His/Her office should have a general e-mail address to give to you.Thank you for your support.Eileen A. I have been looking for the e-mail addresses of my congressman and thePresident and anyone that will make the decision about the ARRB's future inOcotber/November of this year, 1997, so I can write to them to urge theycontinue to fund the ARRB's work.Do you happen to know the e-mail addresses or a source where I can get theCongress and the White House e-mail addresses? I know you are quite busyand do appreciate the press releases, so don't spend too much time on thisrequest unless it is readily available to you. Thank you for your time andattention to this matter.I am thrilled with the work that you and the ARRB do and hope the fundingwill be there to let you continue your good work. The history of thisevidence regarding JFK is very important to me and my family.Sincerely, Jane A. Clark or jjcnol@aol.com
