Subject: Re: Release of NSA Docs

I will call Judy this morning. Yes, please set something up so I can interview Dr. Goldberg when I get copies of the documents. Do we have copies here? To: Thom Wilborn/ARRBcc: David Marwell/ARRB, Jeremy Gunn/ARRB, Eileen Sullivan/ARRB, Christopher Barger/ARRB, Joseph Masih/ARRB, Kevin Tiernan/ARRB, Tom Samoluk/ARRB From: Tim Wray/ARRB Date: 03/20/97 09:04:23 AM Subject: Release of NSA Docs
 Dave Hiestand of NSA informed me this morning that they expect to have the NSA documents previously reviewed by the Board at its November meeting (plus the few "strays" reconsidered in Feb and Mar) ready for transfer to NARA next week. I reminded him of our interest in coordinating a news release on this. If you haven't done so, you might want to touch base with Judy Emmel, NSA's public affairs person (301-688-6524). She will probably be able to provide helpful historical context regarding previous NSA releases (Venona, etc.). [If Ms. Emmel needs to know who within NSA has been handling this action so she can consult with them, the key persons are Claudia Collins, 301-688-6798, and Dave Hiestand, 301-688-6687. Collins has been the person directly supervising their work on these records; Hiestand is one of her henchmen.]As I mentioned to you earlier, it might also be worthwhile to try to get some reaction from Dr. Al Goldberg. He's currently the Historian for the Secretary of Defense; in 1964, he was the historian for the Warren Commission and allegedly wrote much of the text of the Commission's report. He's the person who told me in an interview a year ago that Earl Warren himself thought NSA intercepts, while seen by himself and other members of the Commission, probably would never be released to the public. If you want to set something up with him, let me know. It might be a good idea to wait until we have the NARA-ready redacted documents actually in hand so that we can show them to him. . .
