Subject: Re: SCI clearance
As we just discussed earlier today (and I am reiterating in this note), your case has not yet been sent over. We had two cases over for review and they asked that none be sent until those two were cleared off of our contact's desk. We got word on Monday that the last one left her desk. I will try to get your case copied today or at the latest tomorrow for you to take to the Stafford building. Thanks for volunteering to take it, that will save a few days.I'll ask them to put a rush on it and as I explained to you before since there are no issues I expect it to be no problem to rush it through.

Barry asks that you please do all you can to expedite my SCI clearance. The lack of one has already become an awkward problem and it will shortly become a significant problem. If there is anything you can do, Barry and I would really appreciate it.
