Subject: Re: Odds and Ends

Thanks for the thoughts.I agree on Gallery. I discussed it with David and send an E-mail to Jack to see if he was interested. I suggested to Jack that this may not be a forum in which we want to participate. However, I should point out, as you'll see in the press clips package, the Exner story played in some legitimate newspaper. However, I believe, as you do, that Gallery should write its story without us.On the NSA story, I 've discussed the material only as a coming release that would be interesting in the context of the period (1963). I have plainly warned reporters that the actual information contained in the documents will not be news. Knowing that, the reporters still have a lot of interest.I'll mail the press clips package to you today, including the latest Dorman story.I told DiEugenio that the information he's looking for is on the Web. If things are going well on the Hill, I doubt if a firestorm of support would help. It would be a good idea to talk to him off the record, if you can. If you feel confident that you can discuss the situation with him without the information becoming a story in Probe, I'd recommend it. But David says he sometimes uses comments as "ARRB staff sources" in his newsletter stories.Warm regards, (Go Red Sox)Thom
