You don't have to do anything but get David on the phone. In case he isn't at his desk (or if we are still partying), you just need to locate him to take the call and transfer to him. The reason I notified you is so you would know he must be found, the caller couldn't be put on voice mail, etc.To: Jerrie Olson/ARRBcc: From: Cathy Rodriguez/ARRBDate: 03/27/97 11:30:32 AMSubject: Re: Conference Call is set for Friday, March 28, 3:00 p.m. eastern.I need directions on setting up a conf. call in case I am on phones. Other than forwarding the operator to David, what else needs to be done?To: Cathy Rodriguez/ARRBcc: From: Jerrie Olson/ARRB Date: 03/27/97 11:27:51 AMSubject: Conference Call is set for Friday, March 28, 3:00 p.m. eastern.The operator will call for David first since he is the host. They will call him at approximately 2:53. I am giving you a heads up on this in case the schedule gets juggled and you are on phones instead of me at that time.
