Subject: Re: Joseph Norbury

On December 3, 1963, Wise did cable Legal Advisor Chayes re Oswald. He wrote: "I have no recollection of any interview with Oswald. To the best of my memory, closest contact was single perfunctory exchange of greetings at Embassy. Interviews which occurred were held with other Consular officers. Through correspondence with Embassy and comments of other officers, I remember Oswald as arrogant person "As to Matlock, I do not have any documentation reflecting his contact, if any, with Oswald. To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: Ron Haron/ARRB From: Michelle Combs/ARRBDate: 04/14/97 11:54:31 AMSubject: Joseph NorburyFYI: McVickar's November 27, 1963 Memo for the Record notes that Consul Joseph Norbury took over the handling of the Oswald case from Snyder and McVickar after September 1961. I can't find any record of Matlock or Wise having any contact with Oswald though they were both consular officers.
