Subject: Re: Hello mi compadre!

Hey, Dave! Good to hear from you. Things here are hot (we broke 100 degrees Fahrenheit for the first time on Monday, and again on Tuesday and Wednesday). But it's a dry heat! On other fronts, I spent most of April showing off the sights to siblings who came to visit us here in the Southwest. A sister (and 7 month-old baby) for two weeks, than a brother (and a buddy of his) from New Hampshire for another week. Good visits. Still no action on the job front, but am keeping busy around the house and property -- knocked down two courtyard walls with a sledgehammer last week, and will soon be spreading ten tons of new stone/gravel around. A desert squire am I!
