Why don't we get the badges made up for the Board. Thanks.JRTTo:John Tunheim/ARRBcc:From:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBDate:04/30/97 12:35:41 PMSubject: Re: DOJ badgesNo, they don't need them but can have them if they'd like. These badges enable staff to use the showers downstairs, the card reader on the front of the building for weekends (although the guards are always there to buzz people in), and access to main DOJ without going through the guard/visitor station.To:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc:From:John Tunheim/ARRBDate:04/25/97 03:02:05 PMSubject: Re: DOJ badgesTracy:Do Board Members need these badges?JackTo:ALLcc:From:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBDate:01/14/97 02:22:24 PMSubject:DOJ badgesIf you do not have a DOJ badge, please let me know. I am setting up an appointment for a group to go down and get badges and need to know who needs them. All employees should have this badge--it will enable you to come up the stairwell when the construction is completed (approx. March).
