Subject: Re: Conversation with Tony Veciana, Jr.

Yes, I did discuss the parameters of an interview, but you raise a good point. Perhaps I could emphasize again the scope of what we are seeking in an interview. The subject matter was discussed in the August 13. 1996 letter to Tony Sr., which he acknowledged receiving. I'll let you after I talk to Tony Jr. again. Perhaps we should emphasize that we would only want to talk to him about a few isolated issues, and maybe give him the chance to review these quesitons/issues before we talk to him formally. He might be afraid that we are going to conduct another HSCA-type of investigative interview. If he continues to refuse to be interviewed, limiting the scope of our discussions could be something we could propose before issuing a subpoena.Manuel
