Subject: Re: Book

Hi Mark. I do have a couple of books, (Weddings from the Heart, Wedding Readings, and two books from Jon's sister-in-law who is a pastor about protestant ceremonies in general and Lutheran ceremonies in particularly) but you can't have them yet -- we are in the middle of planning our ceremony right now & we have (our second) meetings with our pastors and our church music person at the beginning of next week, so we're trying to hone in on what we want to do. Of course, we're really looking forward to battling over all of the church stuff (not), so we need to come up with something that represents us but is adequately church-y so that everyone else is satisfied. Help! I will absolutely loan them to you once we finish, but I would suggest that you and Cindy buy this one book, Weddings from the Heart. It is really helpful (despite the goofy name) & goes through all of the different options for the different parts of the ceremony. I got it at Scribner's at Pentagon City about 8 weeks ago. Call & see if they still have it -- it is in paperback and it costs less than $15. I got your message when you called & I tried to call you back that night, but your phone was busy. No call waiting? Then, I gave up & have been meaning to e-mail you. I'm sorry I didn't do it earlier. How is all of the planning going? I have been running by the house where you guys are getting married every Tuesday and Thursday and I check out the gardens each time so I can see what is blooming. I think it will be really beautiful! Colleen is having a great time rock climbing with you and Cindy -- she has been telling me that she could never do it without you and Cindy gently encouraging her and being so great. Can I loan you anything else in the meantime? I feel bad that I can't spare the books right now. Soon, though. Give me a call if you need anything else. Work number is (202) 724-0088. Bye!
