Subject: Re: Ravnitsky Request
Try a low-key answer saying that we shouldn't give out the information for privacy reasons. I would rather that it not be elevated to the level of of FOIA request.

We received a FOIA request for a "list of recipients of ARRB press releases" from Michael Ravnitzky. He did not specify 'press' or 'public' recipients. If I remember correctly, we received a similar request over a year ago. It was denied due to privacy. However, I don't believe it was a FOIA request. Is there any difference to this request?
