

NR_key_name: F668EDEF03DD4350852564EA006AC6E5

SendTo: CN=Joseph Freeman/O=ARRB @ ARRB

CopyTo:

DisplayBlindCopyTo:

BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB

From: CN=Laura Denk/O=ARRB

DisplayFromDomain:

DisplayDate: 08/05/1997

DisplayDate_Time: 3:44:56 PM

ComposedDate: 08/05/1997

ComposedDate_Time: 3:26:17 PM

Subject: Re: When can I see them?

Kevin and I are both available on either the 12th or the 13th. We had lunch with Brian today, who had to suffer through the picture viewing, and he said he would like to come along next week and see you, too. YOU should decide which day, because we are all pretty flexible. I guess I didn't realize that Oscar was coming back from Israel so soon -- it seems like it has only been about 10 minutes since he left to go there and you were sad that he wouldn't be back for awhile. Are our whole lives going to fly by this fast? Alaska sounds fun. What is your itinerary? I appreciate that you waited until today to mention running -- I don't know if you'll be horrified or proud when I divulge my mileage for the last three weeks, but here it is: July 14-20: 8 miles July 21-27: 21 miles July 28-August 3: 8.5 miles (The only reason I ran 21 miles the second week was because we were on a beautiful beachy, mountainous island and we didn't have a car, so I made Jon run with me all around.) Anyway -- I ran 9 miles last night and lifted my weights so that I could get myself back on track. Ugh. Resting is nice, but running hurts less when I do it every day. Kevin brought in some excellent pictures of Grace today. Some are candid shots of Grace at home, which are excellent, but there are some of Grace with 95 year old Grandma at her birthday party, and those are even better! You'll love seeing them! So, I guess you've heard all about the personnel changes at work -- Joan and Ron in their own offices, Eileen promoted and in her own office, Eric leaving, and new folks starting? If not, let me know and I will fill you in. The Board is here today, but I haven't seen them much. Not quite as little as Tammi and Dennis used to see them, but close. On the Bob front, I'm a little worried that Huang Su (spelling?) is beginning to disengage herself from the relationship. I talked to him for a long time yesterday about a telephone conversation he had with her over the weekend and she told him she "needs time to think." Having never heard that phrase uttered before a positive change in a relationship, I am hoping that it means something different in Korea. He is bummed out. Maybe you already know all of this, but I figure I'll tell you stuff, too. I hope that Carolyn's job is still going along swimmingly. Any hope of opening the Phoenix office of her association soon? Have you thought any more about your job plans? Dog plans? (woof!) To: Laura; From: Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date: 08/05/97

02:10:32 PM Subject: When can I see them? The pictures, that is! I can't wait! You and Kevin should decide when it's convenient for me to come in, and I'll plan accordingly. The Vonnegut thing was great! Many a pearl of wisdom buried within! I am saving it for Oscar, who I think will really appreciate it (I will see him shortly, since we are all off to Alaska at the end of this month...). "Summer in the city" in Phoenix is not really so bad (as long as you don't have to work outside when you don't want to): I am surviving it without too much trouble. I run in the morning, hopefully before it breaks the 100F mark, and just go slow. Assuming one takes

Body:
recstat: Record

DeliveryPriority: N

DeliveryReport: B

ReturnReceipt:

Categories: