Subject: Re: Church Committee records at FBI

I called today before I'd read your message, but thanks for it and -- more importantly -- for being so supportive of my visit! Hopefully, my work product will not disappoint you and I'll get something done that will make the trip worthwhile (from the organization's point of view, as it is intrinsically worthwhile for me).Incredibly, it has been raining here most of the day. I had a wonderful and relatively cool run in the rain, with thunder and lightning all about, this morning.Thanks again: it'll be great working with and seeing you and Kevin again so soon after my last visit!
