Subject: Re: Kevin Jessar
Laura:Based on what we have discussed relative to the language in the Deed of Gift (keep paragraph three, eliminate our paragraph four), I say go forward with the standard language, mail it to Alyea with my cover letter that Eileen has and see if he will sign it.Thanks.TomTo:Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc:From:Laura Denk/ARRB Date:08/27/97 12:22:35 PMSubject:Kevin JessarI left another message for Kevin Jessar at Archives today, but I was unable to talk to a human being. The Office of the General Counsel has a totally automated receptionist/voice mail system which asks you to dial your party's extension or key in his or her last name. There is no way to get to a receptionist -- the answering message ends with the following comment:"Do not press '0' to speak to the operator because you will not reach anyone." Should we assume that Jessar is on vacation, and then if he doesn't call next Tuesday, go forward with the standard Archives language in the Alyea deed?
