 I gave Eileen the 2 original deeds that David signed. Sorry it took so long to get all of our answers back on this deed. Good luck with Alyea.

 Here is Kevin Jessar's response to my e-mail yesterday in which I forwarded the deed of gift that we propose to send to Alyea. It looks like we can go forward, so I will print it in final today. Let me know if you have any additional thoughts or comments.

 The deed looks fine. As I understand it, then, you are going to say that the donation was essentially already made at the time the materials were handed over to the ARRB -- thus (1) paragraph one says that donor "gave, donated, and conveyed" and (2) no mention is made of title having passed when the prior agreement was signed (as we discussed you might write it). In any case, this looks fine; it is just a bit odd to call it a deed of gift when the document says the gift was already made. But if he signs, it is not an issue.  >>> Kevin: Thanks for calling this morning to talk about the Alyea deed of gift. I talked to our General Counsel, Jeremy Gunn, about the deed after I spoke to you. He would like to use the "gave, donated, and conveyed" language that we discussed earlier in the deed of gift. I created a draft that incorporates this language and I am including the entire text of the deed below this message. Provided you don't object, we will send this version of the deed to Alyea tomorrow. Please give me a call or send a return e-mail once you have a chance to review the deed. As always, we appreciate your help. Sincerely, Laura Denk
