Subject: Re: Comparative Constitutionalism

Dear Dr. Nelson:I am very apologetic, but I will not be able to get my paper to you by the time I had hoped. Several significant problems have arisen during the past few weeks -- some of which Kermit Hall knows about as they concern additional duties at my office.One of the problems concerns developments in Russia -- which is one of my case studies. There is a new law directly relevant that is expected to be passed and signed by President Yeltsin within the next week. Russia being what it is, the details of the law are still shrouded in secrecy. In order to make my paper timely, I need to get a copy of the law. I have a correspondent in Moscow who is keeping me apprised daily of events.I will be in Warsaw this next coming week where I will be gathering additional information and meeting with knowledgeable persons.If I could send you the paper as late as September 22 it would be very helpful. I would be happy to FedEx copies to any appropriate panelists as well.I hope this arrangement will be satisfactory. Again, I apologize profusely. I am a person who rarely fails to meet deadlines and I feel this acutely.Best wishes,Jeremy Gunn
