Subject: Re: USDA Course offerings
Jeremy--Let's talk about this when you return. I looked at the courses that you flagged and I'm not sure any of them would be very beneficial for you. They also seem to be on the expensive side given how the classes are described.I checked with OPM and they no longer have training classes--they have been merged with the USDA Graduate School.We can talk about the specifics when you return. Maybe you have specific ideas on what you are looking for that will change my opinion.To: Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc: From: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date: 09/04/97 11:41:08 AMSubject: USDA Course offeringsI asked Jerrie to call to find out availability of courses in September because there was a need to move quickly on those. There is no availability.I still wish to take any course or courses that I prudently should take and I would like your earliest candid advice on that issue so that I can be scheduled for the earliest offering.If there are programs other than USDA, please advise as well.
