DeliveryPriority: is working on a story for Vanity Fair and wanted to verify the name of our agency, clarify the Board's authority
DeliveryReport: (I am faxing him background information and our authorizing legislation.)He also asked if we are the agency ReturnReceipt: that one would contact if he or she knew about fraudulent records. As I started to say something, he said that Categories: that is not really important, so I stopped talking about that. He then asked if I ever heard of the AARC and I said yes -- he thought it was a government agency, and I told him it was private.I asked what the story was about and he said, "I'm sorry but I can't go into that with you." It will run in the November issue.
