Jeremy and I were talking about this yesterday. Since AJ's does seem high, I think I'll shop around and maybe find somebody cheaper and get the seal in gold. Are you interested in shopping around with me?TTo:Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc:From:Eileen Sullivan/ARRB Date:10/08/97 11:40:41 AMSubject:Business cards cont'dI stopped by AJ Stationers yesterday. I think it will be easier to order cards for you if I have your old card. They did not have files on us.The minimum order is 500 and the price is $38.50. The numbers seem high, but I think that is because we got a group rate the last time. You may be able to find a better deal, but if you are interested in getting them at AJ's, give me one of your cards and I'll take care of it.
