Subject: Re: ARRB advisory
For the moment I have told you what I can to the extent that I can. There are literally thousands of documents recorded and it is difficult to convey what each one is about, which is why I provide the highlights in the advisories. We are working on getting these documents to the National Archives. Once they are in the JFK Collection, you can obtain copies. I hope you understand our time constraints as we are pushing to get all assassination-related documents open to the public in the JFK Collection.Thanks for writing.
