Subject: Re: Army letter dated Sept. 30
As disappointing as the responses of 22 August and 30 September are, I can not see any reason or benefit to sending any response.Regarding Army surveillance records, more encouraging is the telephone call Ron recently received from Ed McBride of the Joint Staff which indicated he may have found some records pertaining to Army domestic surveillance. Let's see where that leads.To: Douglas Horne/ARRBcc: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date: 10/11/97 09:40:55 AMSubject: Army letter dated Sept. 30Please advise whether we should send a written response to the 9/30 Army letter in reponse to Army-1. If so, please draft such a letter.
