Tom:A student has posed the questions below for one of her classes. Would you like to respond today? Should I forward them to Jack? Wait for Jeremy to return? It seems she needs the answers soon. Let me know -- thanks.Eileen

Sullivan:Hello. My name is Stephanie. I have to do an interview aboutJFK's assassination for one of my classes. I was wondering if you wouldbe willing to answer my questions or have someone you know to answer myquestions. Here they are:1. person interviewed:2. Where were you when you learned of President Kennedy's assassination?3. What were your immediate reactions to the news?4. What do you remember most clearly about the period of mourning and funeral?5. What words would you use to describe Kennedy as "president"?6. What words would you use to describe Kennedy, the "man"?7. How would you rank Kennedy as president compared to D. Eisenhower, L.B. Johnson, Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, and Ronald Reagan?If you could answer these questions for me ASAP that would be great. Orhave someone you know to answer these ASAP would be great also. Thankyou for your time.
Sincerely,2
Stephanie
