Subject: Re: Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge Bundy
I don't think that there is anything we should say to Max about these issues at this time. However:1.
Manchester is on the agenda for the next Board meeting. I am preparing a draft letter to the JFK Library that says that we would like to come look at the papers. The draft letter will be cc'd to Pugh.2. I don't know anything about the Bundy diary. I would suggest that for a first step we check with both the JFK and LBJ libraries, to see what they know. We could pursue it from there.

Subject: Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge Bundy
Max Holland, 543-1190, called me today. He asked about the status of the Manchester papers. Specifically, what prompted him to call was that he was reviewing The Death of a President and noticed Manchester's reliance on the diary of McGeorge Bundy. Max was wondering if with the death of Bundy, we had sought his diary or intended to do so. I wanted to be able to get back to Max on both of these issues.
