Subject: Re: Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge Bundy

Body: Thanks.To:Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc:From:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBDate:11/06/97 06:29:29 AMSubject:Re: Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge BundyI don't think that there is anything we should say to Max about these issues at this time. However:1. Manchester is on the agenda for the next Board meeting. I am preparing a draft letter to the JFK Library that says that we would like to come look at the papers. The draft letter will be cc'd to Pugh.2. I don't know anything about the Bundy diary. I would suggest that for a first step we check with both the JFK and LBJ libraries, to see what they know. We could pursue it from there.To:Jeremycc:From:Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date:11/04/97 03:54:12 PMSubject:Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge BundyAny thoughts on what to say to Max?To:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc:From:Tom Samoluk/ARRBDate:10/28/97 01:34:32 PMSubject:Call From Max Holland on Manchester Papers and Diary of McGeorge BundyMax Holland, 543-1190, called me today. He asked about the status of the Manchester papers. Specifically, what prompted him to call was that he was reviewing The Death of a President and noticed Manchester's reliance on the diary of McGeorge Bundy. Max was wondering if with the death of Bundy, we had sought his diary or intended to do so. I wanted to be able to get back to Max on both of these issues.Please advise me of what I can tell Max.Thanks.
