Subject: Re: NSA and Kermit's visit

He told Moriarty of the HSCA in 1977 that he was with the Army (I think) in 1963 adn heard voice intercepts right after the assassination in which Mexicans and others (Cubans?) were laughing at Americans for blaming international Communism for killing Kennedy, when in reality the right wing in America had killed him.The issue is more one of domestic surveillance and radio intercepts of foreign communications, than it is "NSA." It may have been the military that did this intercept, not NSA.Moriarty wrote an interview report which is "referred."To: Douglas Horne/ARRBcc: From: Manuel Legaspi/ARRBDate: 11/12/97 09:57:58 AMSubject:

Body: Re: NSA and Kermit's visitCan you inform about the Glynn issue? How does it relate to NSA?
