 Judge. Thanks for your note. Here is my laundry list. 1. Thanks for the great holiday card and enclosure. You have inspired me to do something similar for next year's holiday cards. People love getting some fresh news with their cards. 2. I spoke with Steve Tilley today. They are having an internal meeting on the ballistics matter on Thursday. Hopefully, we'll hear something soon, but Steve could make no promises on timing. He wants to see things move. 3. I am in DC this week, Tuesday thru Thursday. 4. Very sad about Michael Kennedy. I have talked to the Library this morning and they already have someone in mind to replace Michael, but want to wait a week or two before raising the issue. 5. You are correct, the Senator does not look good. I hope he addresses his weight because it looks like a serious health issue. 6. I finally finished Hersh, too. A lot of quantum leaps to his conclusions and patting himself on the back for his interviews and "disclosures." 7. Tim Weiner of the New York Times praised the Board in a conversation I had with him today. He said he hopes the Board "keeps up the great work." 8. I look forward to talking with you this week. We've got a staff meeting at 10:00 am on Tuesday, meetings from 9:30 to noon on Wednesday and a meeting on Thursday at 10:00 am with Robert White, the Baltimore collector of Kennedy memorabilia. However, he now has a lawyer, so I don't know what will happen with that meeting. 9. If Debbie can identify a specific time for us to talk, I'll make sure I'm available. We do need to push Bellardo. I will try to call you this week with my list. When are you in Washington? I was saddened to see the news about Michael Kennedy. I wonder what will happen with the RFK papers review function that he performed? By the way, one of the videos showed EMK -- wow, is he out of control or what? I also finished Hersh last week. Not a very interesting book but there does seem to be some leads for us in there. I will talk to you in the next day or so. JRT

 Jack: Unfortunately, Nightline did not do the Board justice. They did not say that it was the Board that released the documents, did not use the Ann interview, and the only reference to the Board was a visual credit at the end of the show. Very disappointing. I called the Nightline producer that I had dealt with and left a lengthy voice mail message expressing my displeasure. Of course, we'll keep plugging. We should get some more Cuba documents released soon. On another matter, with no word from the Archives on the Record
