Subject: Re: Lifton Deed of Gift

I had not sent it. Sorry. Here it is. To: Laura: From: Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date: 01/08/98 09:15:58

AMSubject: Lifton Deed of Gift Laura: I know you probably have a list of things to plow through, but I wanted to get this matter on your radar screen. We need to do a deed of gift for David Lifton's donation of a copy of the Zapruder film. In one sense this is boiler plate, in another sense it is complicated because of the issues surrounding the original Zapruder film (although that probably does not have to be reflected in the deed of gift. The description of the donation should be something like: A 35 mm copy of the film taken of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy by Abraham Zapruder on November 22, 1963. Lifton is donating this particular item (the roll of film), but has no rights to images that are the "Zapruder film." I'm not sure how that language changes the boiler plate provisions of our usual deed of gift. This is for when you have time. Any questions, I'll try to help. Thanks. Tom
