Subject: Re: Marty Underwood and the Cubans

1. Yes, please call him. Suggest once again that we hope the misunderstanding has been resolved. Suggest also that it probably will be easier for everyone if I do it, but we will send someone else if he prefers. Although you shouldn't mention this to Underwood on the phone, it may make more sense for Kim to do it than Ron. I'm sure you get my drift.2. I have tried leaving messages for Rodriguez. I finally spoke with someone yesterday, although he spoke only Spanish. Would you come see me about this?

From: Irene Marr/ARRBDate: 01/14/98 05:36:46 PMSubject: Marty Underwood and the CubansI think it's time to call Underwood again. What is your present stand on this? If Ron is the one to depose him he will need to be brought up to date on the background. If you are still inclined to do it I could try to impress that idea upon Underwood. I am hoping enough time has elapsed that he won't be opposed to having you do the interview. The fact that Peter Jennings mentioned Underwood in the "Dark Side" special, and also noted that Underwood did not agree to be interviewed for that program, certainly gives us additional material to work with. Also, I was just curious, did you ever hear back from Dagoberto Rodriguez after the November 21 letter?
