Subject: At the beginning, obviously.
Friday's out -- we're going to the Nags Head (well, actually, to Duck) this weekend, so we're leaving after work on Friday. Are you feeling comfortable enough to plan for TWO Fridays in advance, 'cause we're available then for sure. :-)Do you really think your "X"s lacked anything? I always thought they just hated me. Oh, well.In line? You already promised me I could be on the panel, so I am. I just wanted to know when we were meeting.I need to look for a new job, too, since mine ends this fall. Ugh. Does the word "networking" instill the same terror in your soul as it does in mine? Okay. Must go and rescue my dog from Barrett's ravenous jaws (they are entertaining each other today.) Later, alligator.
