Dear Mr. Valentine: Thank you for your e-mail message. I apologize for the delay in responding to you. I can help you with your request to a certain extent. You may wish to contact the National Archives (inquire@nara.gov) for information/copies of William Harvey's notes. Although I cannot give you Richard Russell's address, he is (or at least was) in the Boston area. Good luck with your book. Sincerely, Eileen Sullivan
Press and Public Affairs Officer

Dear Ms Sullivan
My name is Doug Valentine. I'm a twice published author, The Hotel Tacloban (Lawrence Hill 1984) and The Phoenix Program (William Morrow 1990). I'm writing a new book about the old Bureau of Narcotics. In that regard I'm trying to find information about Frances Fruge's investigation of Rose Cheramie, and information about Permindex. I'd also like to acquire Bill Harvey's handwritten notes. And I'd like to talk to Mr Richard Russell. Can you help me? Many thanks,
Doug Valentine
