Subject: Re: The real reply

If interest were all that was required to make such things possible, there would be no problem!As for Van Morrison [:-)], don't tell Kevin yet, in case I don't come this month or don't get to it even if I do come, but I've been compiling -- in my head -- a recent-vintage Van the Man tape for him, with special emphasis on Van's '90's return to his blues and jazz roots (Kevin says Grace likes the blues...). A somewhat (though with overlap) different tape than the one I'd have made for you if I'd never read High Fidelity... Probably, if so inclined, you could borrow it from him, though (I don't remember the book having much to say about borrowing tapes made for someone else, do you??).
