Unfortunately,during the weekend of May 15 and 16 our proprietress may be on a raftingtrip. However, there is a possibility that she will not be gong, inwhich case the Dogtel would love to have Ms. Wren as a guest since shehas the reputation to be a lovely dog with the best manners.O.T. (opposable thumb) certification is available if you require.Ms. Colleen@-----From: Laura Denk[SMTP:Laura_Denk@jfk-arrb.gov]Sent: Monday, April 27, 1998 03:25 PMTo: Dulin, Colleen MSubject: dog hotel reservations.Hello. Ms. Dulin?This is Wren Denk's secretary calling. Wren has asked mewhether you haveany availability in the dog hotel during the weekend of June 6,1998. The management of her current abode will be in New Jersey (of allplaces) for a wedding and so Wren needs to stay in a hotel that is owned bysomeone withopposable thumbs (because she can't scoop out the dog foodwithout them.)Do you have a room available?Wren has also asked me to let you know that she may also need aroom forthe evenings of Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16, 1998. Oneof the humans who manages her abode will be in Kansas that weekend fora graduation. The other human may or may not go, though, and soWren may or may not need a room. Do you have a room available?Thank you for your time. Wren looks forward to your response.Sincerely,the girl.
