Subject: Re: HSCA Administrative folders

Carrie,Is it your sense that the majority of the records that you all reviewed were already processed in the "core and related" files, or did it appear to you that the folders contained a number of unique documents?

A few weeks ago Sarah, Marie, and I finished our review of these folders. Several folders can not be located. Luanne said the FBI was busy rearranging file cabinets for the space adjustment but that she would have someone help us later. I left her a note today to see what she knows about these folders and I'll let you know what she comes up with.
