Subject: Re: your fax

Any other week and she would probably go... despite occasional suggestions to the contrary, she actually likes Van Morrison and she definitely likes Joni Mitchell (Dylan she claims to be able to live without), but the IDSA's big trade show -- their most important event/activity of the year -- is the following week in Atlanta (the week I'll be in D.C. and Ligonier), and she's just too busy/tense to want to do it. But she's the one who found out about it on the web and convinced me to go, even though it means travelling to L.A. ("Uptight city in the smog/But don't you wish that/ You could be here, too" Neil Young) by myself. She's an outstanding spouse! In recompense, she has demanded only that I bring her back a t-shirt or other suitable memento.
