Subject: Re: KGB Records -- Schiller Subpoena

I have kept in touch with DOJ on the issue. At the last Board meeting, Jack said he would contact Hunger on the issue and follow-up with a letter. It is my understanding that he and Hunger have been unsuccessful in speaking with each other. the issue certainly has not been forgotten. To: ~~Jeremy Gunn/ARRB~~cc: ~~From: Ron Haron/ARRB~~Date: ~~06/23/98 04:25:08 PM~~Subject: ~~KGB Records -- Schiller Subpoena~~Jeremy -- I was giving some more thought to the Schiller subpoena and how we could urge the Department of Justice to issue it. Is there anything else we can do? Perhaps a letter to DOJ signed by the Review Board members? Perhaps another letter explaining that we need a DOJ decision? I feel very strongly about this issue. I feel these are potentially important records that need to be released in their entirety (and authenticated in some manner) and that the DOJ inaction is regrettable. When you have a chance, could we discuss this. I would be willing to do whatever additional work we need, and which you see fit, on this matter. --Ron
