Subject: Our Friendly State Department

Having heard nothing from our new point of contact at State, Susan Edmondson, I gave her a call this morning. She was unaware that she had been designated as our p-o-c and asked that I send her a copy of Kennedy's letter (which I did). She had only a very vague notion about the Board and that she might be doing something. She was, nevertheless, quite responsive. I asked if she could come meet with the Board and discuss options and provide an update. She tentatively agreed to come on Wednesday afternoon. She said that she would try to find the "substantive" people who can give her updates on the status of efforts. She said she would call me back this morning. That promise, plus a quarter, will pay the tax on a Starbuck's coffee.
