Subject: Re: Chapter 1

Far, far too kind. Do you think the story puts too much emphasis on the medical evidence? I've been thinking maybe that's a mistake, since the photos and x-rays aren't really even covered by our Act. But how to tell the story without it? Did I quote too much (I'm known to do that, you know!). Did you like the Ford-Mailer quote-off? I think it works, but I don't know how many others will agree. Did you see in the paper that, like the AFI and top 100 films, they're coming out w/top 100 english language novels of this century. I was abashed to learn I'd only read 19. I better get off my backside...! But James Joyce has 2 in the top five: Ulysses is #1 and Portrait of the Artist... is 4 or 5. Finnegans Wake is also in the top 100. I didn't see High Fidelity, though. An oversight?? No need to reply quickly, I know there's a lot going on. It was great seeing Sue and Grace at Bob's and Hyun Sook's to-do. Thanks for dragging them along!
