Subject: Re:Jeremy's farewell

The cost was $120 for each of us. Henry called earlier and we thought if the Board members each gave $50 that would basically cover 1/2 the cost. Does this sound ok to you? We are actually pleased that the Board is interested in contributing so any amount would be fine if $50 doesn't work for anyone. It sounds like the party went very well. I will contribute -- how much was the cost? _____ Reply Separator _____ Subject: Jeremy's farewellAuthor: "Tracy Shycoff" <Tracy_Shycoff@jfk-arrrb.gov>Date: 7/27/98 11:41 AMI would like to let you all know that Laura, Michelle, Ron, and I sponsored a farewell party for Jeremy last Friday afternoon at the Chop House. We were able to arrange a semi-private atmosphere and provide all the staff with food and drinks. All indications are that it was very successful--Jeremy seemed to enjoy himself and the staff definitely enjoyed the chance to relax away from the office after some tense weeks! Kevin made the traditional mock book cover and I believe his efforts rivaled the legendary Tom Samoluk covers. The cover was for a new book by Groden identifying the three tramps as Jeremy, David, and Tom thanks to the new digitization of the photograph--you should ask Kevin to see it next time you're here. I mentioned to a few of you at the last Board meeting that we were hoping to do this party for Jeremy and the staff and you expressed an interest in helping us pay for it. If any of you are still interested, any donations from the Board would be divided equally among the four of us. Things are going well here today (our first day under new management!) and we had a going away party for Kim this morning. I know it seems that all we do around here is have going away parties, but for the foreseeable future we have no more! See you all next week.
