That's right. We don't like to do this, but due to the high volume we are recovering copying costs.To:Anna_K._Nelson_ANELSON @ american.edu@dcn.uscourts.govcc:Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrb.gov (bcc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB)From:Judge_John_Tunheim @ mnd.uscourts.gov @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT Date:07/29/98 02:14:12 PM GMTSubject:Re:med. evidenceThanks, Anna. I believe that we are only "selling" them at cost, but I willcheck._____Reply

<ANELSON@american.edu>Date: 7/29/98 10:26 AMI was quite surprised to see that the ARRB was going to "sell" the depositions.Of course we don't have the funds to copy them for everyone, but in the pastwe have made documents available in the conference room and then sent them tothe NA where they can purchase copies. Did I miss the discussion on thisprocedure? Should we be in this buisness? At the very least, we should makeclear that we are charging no more than copying costs PFIAB was created in 1956 but it seems that each president recreates it.Clinton did so by Executive Order 12863. Thus it does differ from the NSC, etc.I suspect Rudman will raise this point. I have a copy of the E.O. Anna
