Subject: Re: You didn't miss me

I didn't realize the Board was coming in tomorrow, or I would have called earlier in the day. I should have more on top of the schedule -- sorry! Thanks for passing on Henry's comments; I'd feel even better if they had been Jack's! But no matter. Good old Henry -- sounds like he spent more time talking to you about me than he spent talking to me about anything in all the time I was there! I got your fax, re: Anna's comments. Thanks for forwarding it. Chapter 1 didn't sustain too much damage there, I guess. I understand what she's saying about the organization, but I think you lose something, too, if the investigation histories and the larger narrative are mushed together. Judgment call. Is Chapter "1a" Ron's section by section? Call me anytime tomorrow afternoon; I should be around. Good luck with the Board meeting, and hang in there.
