Subject: Re: call from Bob Clark re: Angie Novello

We did not contact her. The HSCA didn't get anywhere with her, and didn't believe her "denials" about not having anything to do with its security or custody. (Evelyn Lincoln said Angie had the key to the footlocker containing autopsy photos, x-rays, and biological materials). Because she apparently didn't open up with the HSCA, Jeremy made a decision that it would not be worthwhile to contact her.

Bob Clark called today and was asking if we had ever contacted Angie Novello, RFK's secretary, regarding the chain of custody of JFK's brain. According to Mr. Clark, the chain ends with her. Can you shed any light on this?
