Subject: Re: September 23 Meeting

Thanks, Irene. I am assuming the LBJ Library documents are yellow items for discussion, and I am putting them on the agenda. When you have a minute, we can talk about the CIA memo for the IG Report and figure out what to do. Also, how can I help you with your NSA requests? An e-mail to relevant parties? A call to Barry? A meeting with relevant parties? To: Laura Denk/ARRBcc: From: Irene Marr/ARRBDate: 09/21/98 04:48:44 PMSubject: Re: September 23 MeetingThe only things I have are 2 LBJ Library documents that were referred to PFIAB. I thought Michelle was handling all of PFIAB (I had given her copies of my documents way back when) WHEN I asked her about them she indicated the Board had already voted on PFIAB and seemed surprised that my docs were missed. Apparently my reminders and questions on the subject did not register at the time. Second item may or may not require the Board, I will have a memo to accompany the excerpted version of the CIA 1964 IG report. It's the type of thing that I will be prepared to discuss if the Board is interested. Once you see the memo (when CIA returns it) you can make the call. I am kind of annoyed about the lack of response I have received on my repeated requests to get a straight answer on the status of the LBJ Library NSA referrals (approx. 20 docs) I referred these back in January-Feb while Manuel was here. I understood that the referrals came back and some had to go to CIA. I still do not have an answer on any of these. 4 of these records are definitely not codeword, I have my own back up copies of them. The person handling these referrals does not know their whereabouts but seems to think that Barry has or will be sending them down to me. Ben was more than willing to process them along with the other NSA stuff, but apparently my documents fell between the cracks somewhere. I was reassured early on that things were on track, but it is now September 21 and I still don't have these records processed. OKAY my blood is boiling. I really do not want to spend my last couple of days tracking these things down. I have a record of the outstanding items, and would prefer to leave these in Steve Tilley's hands. Thanks, Laura
