Subject: Re: ARRB Final Report

David:We ourselves will not have an ISBN number until later. If I can get it to you I will (our files, equipment, furniture, etc. are already being taken out the door!) I will be issuing an advisory tomorrow or Friday regarding the means by which you can obtain the report. Copies will be available through NARA provided you send an SASE to cover postage. We will provide you with all the details.It was nice meeting you in Los Angeles and corresponding with you these last few years. Best of luck to you, too.p.s. your deed of gift was sent out.EileenTo: "Eileen Sullivan" <Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrb.gov>cc: bcc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB)From: David Lifton <DLifton @ compuserve.com> @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT Date: 09/23/98 07:36:45 PM GMTSubject: ARRB Final ReportEileen:Re the ARRB report:The GPO tells me that for ordering purposes, I need the ISBN number of thereport. When you know that (or if you know that), could you please supplythat information? Thanks much.If there are any copies obtainable at ARRB, please send me one (addresssupplied below).If there is any procedure in force for ordering them at GPO or at Archives,please let me know. (Martha Murphy said she heard they were consideringmaking it available to reserarchers who send in an envelope. But no finalword on that as of an hour ago. So that's all I know.)Till we meet again. . .best of luck to you.DavidDavid S. Lifton11500 W.
