by of the Technical Branch and of InB. visited the offices of and examined and tested in a general way the device the had brought from to Washington.

- 2. These tests, referred to above, were of a perfunctory nature and concerned the working of the device rather than testing of the device for the needs of IRB or the Technical Branch.
- 3. This conference concluded at approximately 11:15 AM with the agreement that after that made a brief study of the device and had taken whatever photographs or papers they considered necessary, the people responsible would get in touch with the writer and arrange for the delivery of the device and related papers to the Technical Branch. No time was estimated for this but the writer was informed that this would not take long, the implication being that the interest would be only a matter of a few days.

It should be noted for the record that and a and were both out of the city for this demonstration. The writer left word for the to call him upon her return to her desk in connection with the device matter.
