Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request submitted via the Department of the Treasury's FOIAonline on August 21, 2016 for "the memorandums submitted by the United States Mint's Director's Representative regarding the audits of the United States Mint's Schedule of Custodial Gold and Silver Reserves to the Chief Financial Officer for the years 1993 through 2008."

This is to advise you that fees totaling $220.00 have been assessed for duplication costs of the requested documents. This is based on an estimate of 1,200 pages ($.20 per page) of responsive documentation with regard to your request. Please note that as a representative of the news media, fees are not charged for research and review. Fees are charged in this category for duplication only -- the first 100 pages of which are free. Additional duplication fees may become due if the actual number of copies exceed the estimate. However, a refund may be made if fees are less than estimated.

Please make a check or money order payable to the Treasury of the United States and forward to my attention at the following address: United States Mint, 8th Floor, 801 - 9th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20220. Payment is due within 30 days from the date of this letter.

Should you have any questions concerning this letter or would like to discuss your FOIA request further, please feel free to call me on (202) 354-7600.

Sincerely,
