Dear Section 40

I am writing concerning your last two letters to my colleagues Section 40 and Section 40

You have been informed on many occasions that the Ministry of Defence is unaware of any evidence that proves the existence of extraterrestrial life forms and only investigates UFO sightings to establish whether there is evidence to substantiate a breach of UK airspace by hostile air activity. We are unable to comment on any of the other matters you have raised.

I am afraid that I can see no benefit in continuing our correspondence with you and consequently, we will not be responding to any further letters from you.

✉ From Fr Edmunds desk... who have been the most important people in your life? I suspect they were probably neither rich nor famous. And even if they were I suspect those were not the things that mattered for you. The most important people in your life were those who took care of you, when you could not take care yourself; who taught you to read and write; who spent time with you when you were lonely; who corrected you when you went astray; who encouraged you in the right path. The most important people in your life have been those who were your servants.

UNEXPLAINED: PC Alan Godfrey draws a picture of the 'aliens' who abducted him in 1980

By Rachel Porter

IN THE early hours of a cold December morning in 1980, a field of cattle in Suffolk were stirred into a sudden frenzy. At that same moment two guards patrolling nearby US Bentwaters Air Force base saw "unusual lights" coming from the depths of Rendelsham Forest.

Running towards the lights, the men expected to find the debris of an aircraft in the trees. Instead, they came across a strange glowing object, unlike anything they had ever seen, among broken branches in a small clearing.

It was described as "metallic in appearance and triangular in shape" with a "pulsing red light on top, a bank of blue lights underneath" and mysterious hieroglyphics across its hull.

'There is no doubt the public was misled'

The statements of those who saw it, three small indentations it left in the ground and high radiation levels recorded after it ascended through the canopy are regarded as the most compelling proof to date that Earth has been visited by alien craft.

Yet in the face of this extraordinary evidence the Ministry of Defence has never appeared to acknowledge the possibility of UFOs or other-world aliens making missions to meet us. Its silence confirms, politicians say, that bizarre tales of spaceships and ETs are flights of fantasy.

Thousands of sane, honest people who have reported all manner of inexplicable forms in the skies above Britain have been disregarded as crackpots.

But this week, thanks to the release of previously classified government documents under the Freedom of Information Act, it emerges the MoD not only employed a secret unit of agents to investigate UFOs but also went to immense lengths to cover-up their operations.

For millions of "believers" around the world, the involvement of DI55 (as the unit is known) and subsequent efforts to expunge its work from records will fuel suspicions that governments have for some

THE UFO

New evidence reveals that successive spacecraft' to protect the public. But time known more than they let on. Among "Ufo-logists", debate rages as to why powers-that-be prefer to keep such knowledge under wraps. But what is no longer in any doubt is the fact our Government chose to do just that.

When in 1976 amateur enthusiast Julian Hennessy requested MoD records on UFO sightings, he sparked a chain of panic around its corridors.

A note from the head of the UFO desk to the MoD head of security said officials planned to refuse access on grounds they contained "very little of value to a serious scientific investigator".

It added: "This is not to say that the investigation is not taken seriously. But it is undesirable that even a hint of this should become public and we are currently consulting the [Air Historical Branch] on ways of expurgating the official records against the time when they qualify for disclosure [at the Public Records Office]."

Attempts to alter the public record went on into the Nineties.

In a note dated April 28 1993 - as the record's public release date loomed - one official argued DI55's involvement in UFO investigations should be erased from the file completely.

ALTHOUGH the documents stop short of confirming the existence of extra-terrestrial life, they confirm government reluctance to appear in any way concerned. Dr David Clarke requested the papers under the Freedom of Information Act.

"They don't say what conspiracy theorists want them to say," he says, "but they prove that, while the government was telling us UFOs did not exist, they were investigating behind closed doors. There's no doubt the public have been misled."

Why did those in power shield us from the truth? There is no shortage of colourful suggestions and real-life X Files investigator Nick Pope, who ran the MoD UFO Project from 1991 to 1994, knows them all.

The most common theory comes from the US, where interest in UFOs is stronger and sightings more frequent than anywhere in the world.

"Some believe alien spacecraft that crash-landed on Earth are now in the custody of the government," Nick says.

"They say scientists and engineers are taking these craft apart piece by piece in an attempt to improve our own aero-technology.

"After all, most reports of UFOs describe an object flying with the kind of speed and agility we can only imagine."

He is sceptical, to say the

Sightings to fuel the alien mystery

LOUGHTON, ESSEX

September 12, 2005
Police in Loughton were bombarded with calls from concerned residents reporting UFOs in the sky. Three "orange globes of fire" were seen. Local resident Robert Sloane said: "There was a triangle of three piercing globes. It reminded me of a scene from Close Encounters. Everyone was gobsmacked. There's no way a plane would move at their speed."

RAF COSFORD and RAF SHAWBURY, Shropshire

March 30, 1993
A massive triangular aircraft was spotted flying over the two RAF bases only days after a series of sightings across the country. Witnesses, including members of an RAF police patrol and a meteorological officer, saw a UFO "several hundred feet in diameter" which made a low buzzing sound, moved slowly across the land, then shot away at great speed.

RENDLESHAM FOREST, SUFFOLK

December 26, 1980
A UFO was reported to have crashed near the American air base in Rendlesham Forest. After seeing bright lights and fearing an aircraft had crashed, three military personnel went to investigate. They reported being confronted with a small metallic craft with hieroglyphic symbols flying through the trees.

An investigation found a triangular mark on the ground where the craft had supposedly landed and a Geiger counter reading peaked significantly in the depressions the craft's "legs" had made on landing. The deputy base commander Lieutenant Colonel Charles Hart was sceptical but was shocked when he investigated a second sighting and saw the craft his colleagues had described.

THE NORTH SEA

November 5, 1990
The pilot of an RAF Tornado sent out an alert saying his craft had been overtaken by a UFO. Two other Tornado pilots corroborated his report, stating they had also seen the unidentified aircraft. The pilots said they had been dazzled by very bright lights.

NORTHUMBERLAND

July 3, 1977
Flight Lieutenant A M Wood said he'd witnessed a UFO in the form of "bright objects hanging over the sea" about three miles off the coast of Northumberland. At the same time a radar station detected the objects in exactly the same position.

governments have hidden details about potential 'alien if there's nothing to worry about why is it all still secret?

least, but says of all the theories this one makes most sense.

"It is highly unlikely intelligent extra-terrestrial beings are visiting us but, supposing for a moment they were, it is easy to see how governments would stand to gain from studying alien technology," he says.

"The advantages of that kind of technological windfall, militarily and economically, would be absolutely immense."

He is considerably less impressed by the astonishingly common belief an alien race is replenishing itself with fresh DNA harvested from abducted humans and that governments around the world turn a blind eye to thousands of abductions a year in exchange for knowledge of their advanced technology.

"Another hypothesis is based on the idea extra-terrestrials seeded life on this planet way back in time," he explains. "They say we were dumped here by our distant relatives who, from time to time, pay us visits to see how we're doing. "Sightings are therefore nothing more sinister than a visit from your long-lost aunt," he laughs.

"Ufo-logists" have an answer for everything - even why alien creatures so often appear in humanoid form, with two eyes, two arms, two legs, one head. They are time-travellers from the future, simply a highly evolved model of our present-day selves, so highly evolved they have cracked time-travel."

THERE were 158 reported UFO sightings in Britain last year alone. Nick Pope says his own investigations led him to believe at least five per cent of such cases are genuinely inexplicable.

Cases like that of PC Alan Godfrey, who in 1980 reported in convincing detail an encounter with sinister humanoid creatures, still remain unsolved. He was patrolling an area just outside Halifax, West Yorkshire. Under hypnotic regression he reported being kidnapped by a blue diamond-shape craft and examined by aliens. A craft like the one he described had been seen hovering on the skyline near Halifax that same evening.

But despite his dogged determination to uncover proof of MoD operations in this field, Dr Clarke believes there is a more mundane explanation for the MoD cover-up.

"Their reluctance to come clean about DI55's involvement was less about what they knew than what they didn't know. The truth is the MoD has spent almost nothing investigating this phenomenon and it is embarrassing to have to admit that," Dr Clarke says.

"The UFO issue has been tarnished by its lunatic fringe.

"Armies of people, in America in particular, have made such wild claims about their own extra-terrestrial encounters that persuading governments to spend resources investigating what are in actual fact legitimate and worrying incidents within British aerospace has been very difficult. But, after years of reassuring the public UFOs are nothing to worry about, it doesn't look good to admit you have very little evidence to support that."

Nick Pope, meanwhile, allows himself to wonder if there isn't a more troubling reason at the root of the attempted MoD whitewash.

"Not even the most accomplished social theorist could begin to guess what would happen to society on Earth if the existence of extra-terrestrial life was conclusively proved or disproved.

"Certainly, if some of the more colourful theories were found to be true - if aliens really were abducting humans in vast numbers and stealing our biological matter, for instance - there would certainly be mass hysteria.

"Others say it would undermine religion and bring the world economy to its knees.

"After all, discovery of life in another world would be the most profound development for the human race, outside conclusive proof that there is a God."

PERSISTENT CORRESPONDENT – Section 40

Issue:

1. Section 40 is a persistent correspondent on (initially) the subject of UFOs. His correspondence is becoming increasingly incoherent and related to non MoD matters. The value of continued correspondence with Section 40 is now becoming questionable.

Timing:

2. Routine.

Recommendation:

3. That DAS Sec informs Section 40 that we will place any letters he sends on file, but will no longer be corresponding with him.

Background:

4. Section 40 of Section 40 began writing to DAS Sec on the subject of UFOs in October 2000. We have written to Section 40 on many occasions noting his comments and outlining the MoD policy regarding UFOs. However, Section 40 frequently refers to non MoD matters in his letters (a list of subjects he has raised is attached) despite having been informed that this branch cannot comment on such matters. His letters have become increasingly incoherent and rambling and it is often difficult to read or understand them. It is now considered that there are no further benefits to the department in corresponding with him and that responding to his letters is no longer an appropriate use of our time and resources.

5. Although Section 40 frequently mentions UFOs, the range of other subjects he refers to means that declaring him a vexatious correspondent may not be suitable, as the process is based on individuals returning to the same topic despite rather than covering multiple subjects.

6. I have sought advice from Section 40 from the Parliamentary Branch. He agrees that the normal route of declaring Section 40 as vexatious is not suitable in this case and suggests that we maintain a record of any letters he sends but cease corresponding with him.

Presentational Aspects:

7. There are not considered to be any presentational matters arising from ceasing correspondence with Section 40

8. Your agreement to this exceptional course of action is sought.

I am writing concerning your two latest letters addressed to my colleague, Section 40 concerning UFOs.

You have been informed on many occasions in correspondence with this Department, that the Ministry of Defence knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of extraterrestrial life-forms and that we examine the UFO sightings reported to us, purely to establish whether there is any evidence to substantiate a breach of UK airspace by hostile air activity. We are not aware of any connection whatsoever between road traffic accidents and alleged alien activity and we have no further comments to make regarding these matters. We therefore believe there is nothing to be gained by continuing this correspondence.

Our garden lanterns started a UFO scare

TO those who watched in awe, there had never been anything quite like it in the skies above their homes.

Six mysterious orange orbs hovered in broken formation before suddenly disappearing silently at high speed.

Dozens of alarmed householders were mystified by the UFOs, and photographic evidence was so compelling that the Ministry of Defence began to investigate a possible invasion from outer space.

That was until the true nature of the mysterious objects was revealed. They were in fact oriental paper lanterns, which floated away on the heat of the flames being used to illuminate them.

Householders Paul McKinney and Emma Henfrey were given the lanterns by a neighbour attending their house-warming party in Seaham, Co Durham.

Secret

But the lights floated off into the warm summer evening and eventually drifted up to five miles away over neighbouring villages.

News of the sightings was flashed around the world by excited UFO enthusiasts. When the couple heard the following day that police had been bombarded with sightings of glowing lights they decided to stay quiet and persuaded pals to keep their secret.

But after the Ministry of Defence launched its investigation they knew they had to come clean.

Paul, 28, and Emma, 30, received the floating lanterns as a gift from neighbour Quentin Carr.

"It was an awesome experience to see these lanterns float up and away and we never thought for a second that people would think they were aliens," said Paul. "I wasn't going to say anything because I thought it was quite funny but then my cousin saw something in the local paper about the MoD investigating so I thought I had better own up.

"With all that's happening in the world at the minute and the increased terrorism level in the UK I thought I should put people's minds at rest."

The lanterns are sold on the internet at £20 for a box of 10 and carry a warning that they have been mistaken for UFOs.

They can fly up to 1,000ft in the air and look like hot air balloons. They are made from a paper bag, copper wire and a paraffin cube which glows as the fuel burns.

Witnesses who spotted the lanterns on July 29 were convinced they were seeing UFOs, including pensioner Harry McCall, 67, and his wife Elizabeth.

Mr McCall said: "It is good to hear an explanation. But it was a strange experience. They were glowing in the air and making no noise at all. I'd never seen anything like it."

The lights were also spotted by Ian Craggs, 50, and his wife Melanie, who caught them on film.

Mr Craggs said: "To us they were UFOs in that they were unidentified to us and they weren't aeroplanes."

An MoD spokeswoman said all sightings witnessed by large groups of people are looked into as a matter of routine.

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your letter dated 29 July 2006 and your newspaper clipping about UFOs.

You mentioned about lights in the sky, and said that it could be possible that they could be connected to terrorism. I would like to assure you that integrity of the UK's airspace in peacetime is maintained through continuous surveillance of the UK Air Policing Area by the Royal Air Force. This is achieved by using a combination of civil and military radar installations, which provide a continuous real-time 'picture' of the UK airspace. So if we became aware of evidence which might suggest a potential threat, action would be set in hand to investigate, analyse and counter that threat, in the light of the circumstances that prevail at the time. This applies to any form of threat to the UK's security from whatever source. I should point out that to date, the MOD is not aware of any evidence which substantiates the existence of craft or life forms of extraterrestrial origin, and no threat has been discerned which has been attributed to a 'UFO'.

Also, it is clearly outside the Department's defence remit to devote such resources to determining the precise identity of every seemingly inexplicable sight in the sky. It is quite normal for a sighting to remain unexplained, but require no further official action. Once content that there is no evidence of a matter of defence concern, the reports are then placed on file.

I hope this information is helpful.

Finally, your comments have been noted and your letter and newspaper clipping will be placed on our files.

Strange events after woman sees UFO

A WOMAN spotted unidentified bright orange lights over the A14 last Tuesday evening.

The UFO sighting follows three other in the county this month.

Sarah Hodges, of Packer Road, Kettering, spotted the lights at about 9.30pm.

She said: "I used to be a sceptic, but I was sitting in the garden when I saw a bright orange light appear on the horizon and it looked as if it was rising out of the trees.

"I watched it for a few seconds trying to work out what it was, then all of a sudden, the light disappeared. It could not have gone behind a cloud as it was a clear night and it definitely was not an aeroplane.

"That night we had a disturbed night's sleep as our doorbell kept on ringing for no apparent reason - but not to the ringer tone we had set it to."

There were similar UFO sightings in Centre Parade, Kettering, on July 19, and in Northampton.

Village hit by thieves

A SPATE of break-ins has been reported in a village.

The thieves struck at the Gretton Road end of Harringworth and broke into stables and outhouses at one house.

A car was also broken into and tools were stolen from a building site. A motorbike was stolen from premises at Scotgate.

All the crimes have been reported to the police. They have urged villagers to make sure all gates, doors and windows are securely locked.

Mum says light in sky was not aircraft

■ By David Jackson
 david.jackson@northantsnews.co.uk

A MUM saw strange lights in the sky within hours of people in the county claiming to have seen a UFO.

Wendy Smith's sighting of the unidentified flying objects was made within hours of the sightings by two people in Northampton who reported seeing the orange lights.

Mrs Smith, 55, of Centre Parade, Kettering, said: "It was about 12.30am. I was hot and I couldn't sleep.

"I was looking out of the window and saw some bright orange lights in the sky which flashed and then came back on every couple of seconds.

"There was a very thin white beam coming from them."

Mrs Smith woke her husband and children and she watched them flicker in the sky until about 3.45am on Wednesday last week.

She said: "The light kept dimming and then getting brighter. It was so strange; I couldn't stop looking but I'm not sure exactly what they were.

"It certainly wasn't an aircraft.

"When I heard about the sightings in Northampton on the same night it knew I must have been the same ones."

Abington hairdresser Paul Symeou, 44, said he saw the lights at about 11.50pm.

They were spotted minutes later by another man in Moulton

The sightings were reported to the national UFO group Contact International.

The Ministry of Defence said the sightings would be logged rather than investigated.

The MOD spokesman said: "If there was a threat to national security we would investigate the matter, but we haven't heard anything that we would consider a threat so these kind of calls are just logged."

You can report sightings to <http://contactinternational.ufo.homestead.com>

I am writing in response to your letter dated 19 July 2006.

Thank you for the newspaper clippings on Syd Barrett/Pink Floyd. The UFO club in which Pink Floyd played, is not linked in any way, or has any relevance to UFOs. It was a club in Tottenham Court Road, London, where numerous bands played.

The issue of Deepcut Barracks, is not the responsibility of this Department, so I am unable to comment.

With regards to the selling of war medals, the MOD has no power as to who buys or sells them, whether through flea markets or auctions, although a lot of medals are put into museums, for which the public can then view. War medals are not dealt with by this Department.

Finally, your comments have been noted, and your letter and newspaper clippings will be placed on our files.

Dear Section 40

I am writing in response to your letter dated 5th March concerning the article about UFO sightings that appeared in the Evening Telegraph. You should by now have received a response from my colleague, Section 40 to your earlier letter.

It may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence has received many Freedom of Information requests for details of the UFO sighting reports we have received in various areas of the UK. In order to assist the public we have released brief details for each sighting reported throughout the UK between 2002 and 2005 and if you have access to the internet you will be able to view them on the MOD website at www.mod.uk. The article in the Evening Telegraph appears to have been written using this information. With regard to the timing of the publication of the article you will need to contact the newspaper about this as the MOD has no influence over the writing of newspaper articles or the timing of their publication.

Finally, with regard to the remaining comments in your letter regarding the film you saw on Channel 4, I do not understand what relevance this has to the MOD, so I am unable to comment.

Yours sincerely,

even the most essential food items. After school, Christian earns money for his family by shining shoes in the city centre.

For us in Britain it is hard to imagine our homes without running water but for people like Christian, it transforms lives.

The community worked in a human chain carrying sand and bricks so water could be pumped into tanks at the top of the hill, serving 80 families.

Most inhabitants of Lima's shantytowns were forced out of rural areas during Peru's 20-year internal conflict. Many of them are unable to speak Spanish and have few job opportunities.

Christian's father Alejandro Vidalon Machuca, sharpens knives for a living: "Every day I carried two huge barrels of water up the hill," he says.

"They weighed a lot even without water. My back ached from the weight. Now we have water in our home."

Water is an important symbol in our Christian life. This Lent we could reflect on the water of baptism and the baptismal promises we will renew at Easter, and consider what changes we need to make to truly live our faith.

We are not alone

Town hotspot for 'bright light' reports

BY OLIVER JELLEY

WE are not alone – at least not according to official Ministry of Defence documents.

Fifteen sightings of flying saucers have been reported in the area in recent years.

Wellingborough has emerged as the county's UFO hotspot after 12 mysterious objects were spotted in the skies above the town.

Reports of bright lights, buzzing noises and fast moving "V shaped objects" have all emerged in a Ministry of Defence UFO report, disclosed to the Evening Telegraph.

The sightings date back to February 2004, with the number seen in the county standing at 20.

There have been two reports of "space-ships" hovering over Corby and one over Rushden.

Amateur astronomer and UFO expert Gary Anthony, from East Yorkshire, said: "I think 95 per cent of the reports of UFOs turn out to be natural phenomena. The other five per cent is really up for grabs. They could represent unknown natural phenomena."

Last April it was reported that a "UFO/bright light was seen at a high altitude" above Wellingborough.

In February, 2005, somebody also "witnessed a V shape object" in Wellingborough, "which had bright lights and sounded like bees".

The UFO archive contains sightings from across the country, and some have been made by people in official positions.

■ WE ARE NOT ALONE – how an alien visitation to Wellingborough might look

An airline pilot spotted a two-metre yellow cylindrical object in Sussex, in August, 2005, while four police officers reported a "diamond shaped object" over Northumbria in September.

A Ministry of Defence spokesman said: "The MoD examines any UFO reports it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance."

"Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us.

"We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of service."

Sightings of UFOs tend to be made to police stations or military bases and are then passed on to the MoD.

Celebrate harvest German-style

RESIDENTS from East Northamptonshire will join tourists from all over the world at a harvest festival celebration.

Higham and Raunds Twinning Association members will visit their twin town of Hachenberg, in the Westerwald region of Germany, in August.

The trip will coincide with the region's traditional harvest festival celebration, the Kirmes festival.

Association chairman Gill Mercer said: "We're all looking forward to the visit, as our friends in Hachenberg always make us very welcome."

"It's encouraging to see new friendships formed at each visit and people who take part in the trip don't have to be able to speak German."

"There are still some places for anyone who would like to join us."

The party will stay with host families in Hachenberg for five days and visit Bruges in Belgium for one day.

The group will travel by coach and ferry and the trip costs £140. The trip will run from August 11 to August 16.

For details call Mrs Mercer on 01933 313362 or visit the association's annual general meeting in Stanwick School Rooms at 8pm on Monday, March 27.

Have a cuppa

A COFFEE morning and a bric-a-brac stall will be held at Wymington Wesleyan Chapel from 10am until midday next Saturday in aid of NCH charity.

Dear Section 40

I am writing concerning your letter dated 20 February 2006.

With regard to the Queen's Birthday Parade, (Trooping the Colour) celebrations, the MOD does not give out funds or free tickets to members of the public so that they can go to the event. Also the ticket allocation/celebrations are not dealt with by this Department.

Finally, you asked again about the aircraft that was spotted flying over Corby. As mentioned in my previous letter dated 20 January 2006, our low flying complaint cell informed me that there could have been low flying aircraft in the area of Corby, but without a specific time, (as they need a time to be able to trace if any, what aircraft was in the sky), they can't actually inform you as to what the aircraft was.

Sorry I could not be any help with both of the matters above.

Thank you for your letters dated 11/12 January 2006.

You asked about an aircraft that was spotted by the public flying over Corby. I have checked with our low flying complaint cell to see if there were any low flying aircraft over Corby on Friday 6 January 2006. They have informed me that there probably could have been low flying aircraft in the area of Corby, but without a specific time, (as they need a time to be able to trace if any, what aircraft was in the sky), they can't actually inform you as to what the aircraft was, and if it was a plane that was undertaking low flying exercises. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your letter dated 29 October 2005 which I have just received.

You enclosed a newspaper clipping about a black panther. This is not a defence concern and therefore is not a matter for the MOD.

Also the comments made about HRH Prince of Wales, is not the responsibility of this Department to deal with or comment on.

Finally, the three letters you sent, I am returning to you, for which you may wish to keep for future reference, as I can't assist you in your request, when the matters in the correspondence you are talking about, are not issues for this Department. As stated before in my previous correspondence, we are the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for dealing with correspondence regarding UFO's, not any other general issues that members of the public may have.

Your letter and newspaper clipping will be placed on our files.

Yours sincerely

Service honours fallen heroes

EVERYONE is invited to a Remembrance Sunday parade and service to remember those who gave their lives to ensure the peace and freedom we enjoy today.

Burton Latimer British Legion, along with legions across the nation, will pause to reflect on the sacrifices made by Britain's brave servicemen and women on Remembrance Sunday, November 13.

Honorary secretary of the Legion Florence Aldridge said: "There will be a parade and service and everyone is welcome to come along and take part. It would be nice to get as many people as we can to support us."

The parade of war veterans, their relatives and local groups and organisations will set off from Churchill Way at 2pm, led by a girls' and boys' brigade band.

It will proceed to St Mary's Church for a service to which people of all denominations are invited.

After the service the parade will walk back to the war memorial where a small service will be held before wreaths are laid in memory of those who gave their lives.

A two-minute silence will then be observed.

Refreshments will be served afterwards at the Band Club in High Street.

Police homing in on drug dealers

■ KNOCK, KNOCK - Operation Hinge was launched this month to catch drug dealers in the Wellingborough and Rushden areas

Council warns tenants they face eviction

BY STEPHANIE WEAVER

COUNCIL tenants caught with drugs in their homes could face eviction.

Since the launch of Operation Hinge earlier this month to snare drug dealers in the Wellingborough and Rushden area, 33 police warrants have been issued to search properties for evidence.

Of the 30 warrants issued in the Wellingborough area, ten properties were owner-occupied, two were housing association tenants and the remaining 18 were council tenants.

Spokesman for Wellingborough Council Carol Mundy said: "Legal action for possession has begun against council tenants arrested and those who allowed their homes to be used for drug purposes.

"The council will seek possession of every property where it proves involvement.

"Council tenants are legally responsible for the actions of anyone in their property."

Tenants should already be aware of the risk of eviction as all contracts include a clause on how contracts can become void if tenants are caught carrying out illegal actions.

The warning from the council comes just a week after the police sent out more than 1,000 letters to residents in the Hemmingwell area of the town explaining the operation so far and urging people to come forward if they had any information about drug dealing in the community.

Three police warrants have also been issued in East Northamptonshire as part of Operation Hinge.

● A 21-year-old man from Wellingborough was arrested in the town centre yesterday on suspicion of supplying class A drugs. He was interviewed by officers as part of Operation Hinge.

Driver spots mysterious black panther

AN ELUSIVE wild cat thought to be roaming the countryside has reappeared.

A large black panther has been rumoured to be living in Northamptonshire's fields for the last decade but following a spate of appearances in 2004 sightings this year have been rare.

However, van driver Jason Watson caught a glimpse of the beast as he drove through Pipewell on Monday at 1.30pm.

He said: "I just passed the village sign and saw it leave the road.

"There was a pheasant in the road and I think it was going to go for it but it heard my van and it bolted through the hedge. I spend a lot of time in the countryside and I have never seen anything like this."

Mr Watson, of Turner Road, Corby, said he had always believed the panther existed, despite the fact no one has ever been able to prove its existence with a photograph.

He said: "I did have my camera with me but it moved so fast. I had thought that it had gone away because there were no stories about it in the ET."

Previous sightings of the mysterious creature have described its sleek, smooth coat, but Mr Watson said this is not the case.

He said: "It has a rough coat. Maybe it's because it is living in the wild."

Users rebuilding lives

THE number of county drug users getting clean is well above the national average.

Northamptonshire has bucked the national trend for those successfully finishing treatment. A total of 61 per cent of users referred to treatment in the county last year completed at least 12 weeks of their programme, compared to 53 per cent across the UK.

The county's Drug and Alcohol Action Team, the body charged with delivering the national drug strategy at local level, also beat its target to have 1,524 people in treatment in the year 2004-05, helping 1,555 people.

This is a significant improvement on the previous year, in which 1,402 people were in treatment, and 51 per cent completed their programme.

Chair of Northamptonshire DAAT I Burrows said: "I'm delighted to see that more and more people in Northamptonshire are completing treatment and rebuilding their lives without drugs.

"We will continue to work together with our partners to help more drug misusers into and beyond treatment by improving access to education and employment, to reduce the supply of illegal drugs, and to support all those affected by drug misuse and its effects on the community."

Northamptonshire is also the second best performing county in the East Midlands, with only Derby City reporting a higher rate of people staying the course.

Singing, dancing, drumming, drama and poetry will all be showcased at the event, which will be held at The Castle theatre.

"This is a celebration of our ancestors and a chance to remember people who have helped pave the way for black people and others as well."

All of the actors, singers and dancers are from the Wellingborough area with pupils from a number of schools, including Wrenn School, taking part.

- Black History Month is held every October in Britain.
- Its aims are to promote knowledge of Black History and experience and disseminate information on positive black contributions to British society
- It is hoped there will be a heightened confidence and awareness of black people in their cultural heritage
- The origins of Black History Month go back to 1926 when Carter G Woodson, editor for 30 years of the Journal of Negro History, established African Caribbean celebrations in America
- It is still celebrated there in February each year
- In Britain, the month-long celebration has now grown to more than 1,400 events all over the country
- The focus on African and Caribbean heritage pre-dates the work of London Strategic Policy Unit which, as part of the African Jubilee year in 1987, helped to establish the event.
- People from our community have been promoting black arts and culture for many, including Eric and Jessica Huntley from Ealing who regularly organised a Caribbean week in the late 70s and early 80s.

Dear Section 40

I have received your last letter, you did not include the date.

I am not questioning the fact, that you witnessed a UFO near power lines, or that this does happen, it's just simply that power lines across the country are not the responsibility of the Ministry of Defence. Plus as you will know by previous letters, the MOD's policy, is that it has a limited interest in UFOs. It is not the function of the MOD to provide this kind of aerial identification service.

I have taken note of your comments regarding power lines and UFOs and your RAF acknowledgement correspondence.

Your letter will be placed on our files.
