[REDACTED]

With reference to the two photographs of an unidentified Subject, we have determined through one of our sources the following:

On the morning of 21 October, the day of the demonstration, our source states that they observed this individual in the company of [REDACTED] at the National Mobilization Headquarters. Source overheard this individual speaking to [REDACTED] that he would be attending a meeting and a party at the Willard Hotel that night with one of the veteran anti-war in Vietnam groups. At that point [REDACTED], in the presence of unidentified Subject, stated that unidentified Subject was too fat to be going to such affairs.

Further attempts are being made to specifically identify the man in your photographs. Perhaps the above may also give you a lead in case the man had a room in the Willard Hotel.
