Telephonically received from [REDACTED] on 24 June 1968 at 1650 Hours.

[REDACTED] reported that there are about 1000 or more people gathering in vicinity of 14th and 1st U Streets, around SCLC Headquarters which has closed down. Crowd is intense, saying "just wait till dark, those people who own businesses better move out", etc. Crowd so thick, cars cannot go through. Peoples Drug Stores have closed in that area. He also observed about 10 or 15 cars heading north on 14th obviously people from Resurrection City, headed possibly to churches in outlying area.

A couple of old busses have been introduced into the area and someone on the bull horn is trying to get people to load up and go back to Resurrection City. The people are not responding too well to this idea. Most of the police in the area are colored, the street is now open to traffic.
