Headquarters
24 February 1970

MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Agent in Charge
(All Field Offices)

SUBJECT : Operational Support for Recruitment
I-SD/1
: Project RESISTANCE
533 989 I-SD/1

1. Reference is made to Headquarters letter of 23 February 1967 regarding Operational Support for Recruitment, to Headquarters TWX of 11 December 1967 regarding Project RESISTANCE, and to Headquarters letter of 11 July 1968 concerning both Subjects.

2. Because of Headquarters' responsibility for periodic assessment of the products of continuing projects, it is now necessary to obtain an approximation of the professional and clerical hours expended monthly in behalf of the Subject assignments.

3. The difficulty of differentiating the man-hours expended on Project RESISTANCE from other cases is realized, however it is suggested that only the time expended in direct support of this activity be considered in your estimation. Incidental amounts of time in obtaining material while in the normal pursuit of other assignments should be ignored.

4. While man-hours expended in behalf of Operational Support for Recruitment may be much more directly attributable to the assignment, it is appreciated that no record has been kept. However, a monthly estimation of man-hours spent, based upon one month between October and March during which time recruiters are active, is requested.

5. A suggested format for your estimations is attached.

6. It is requested that you submit your estimations of man-hours expended on Subject assignments so that they reach Headquarters by 9 March 1970.
