SITUATION INFORMATION REPORTCALENDAR OF TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

Asterisked items are either reported for the first time, or contain additions or changes to previously reported activities.

The NMC recently held a press conference to announce plans for a "winter-spring" offensive against the war which would have three themes: 1. Protest repression of dissent and support the rights of the BPP and the "Chicago Conspiracy 7"; 2. Educational program to expose corporations profiting from war and costs of war effects on U.S. citizens to culminate in massive demonstrations on 15 April; 3. Teach and support the legal and moral rights of GI's to refuse service in Vietnam.

*December 13 and 24, Nationally

After the mass demonstration approach of the November 13-15 actions in Washington, D.C., San Francisco, and other major cities the Vietnam Moratorium Committee plans for December called for three days of action split between the 12th and 13th of December and the 24th but on a peaceful, small-sized, low-key, decentralized, individual community level. Reputedly, VMC thinking now is that future VMC-sponsored activities will not be scheduled to escalate a day a month as previously planned nor are they to include mass demonstrations. Plans are to work peacefully through the electoral system and to create dialogue on the Vietnam war. As noted earlier, the plans of the New Move have not been firmed up yet, but it is anticipated that they will entail much more aggressive actions.

VMC activities planned and suggested to local anti-war groups include:

Peaceful "town meetings" in 25 major American cities to discuss the war, to remind local 1970 political candidates that Vietnam will be a major issue, and to encourage adults to take a more active anti-war role;

A deluge of postcards and telegrams to President Nixon urging a faster withdrawal of all American forces;

Peaceful anti-war "USO-type" concerts by anti-war entertainers;

Peaceful silent vigils at shopping centers;

Interdenominational "services for peace" Christmas Eve;

Public "silent night" vigils and Christmas carolling with theme of "Peace on Earth" on Christmas Eve;

Peaceful goodwill visits to Vets Hospitals and military bases;

Visits to home offices of Congressmen pledging support only if they are anti-war; and, broadened contact with the GI anti-war movement.

Mass activities on December 20 - the day of establishment of the South Vietnam National Liberation Front, "must become a culmination of all the mass action conducted in the most diverse forms," it declared.

The entire thrust of these aforementioned plans and actions are for individual community peaceful demonstrations attuned to seasonal activities.

"Relating to GI's" is expected to take the form of genuine, friendly attempts to create dialogue on the war. At this date, all sources report any potential civil disturbances are completely within the capability of local law enforcement agencies to control.
